

Summer Reading Bingo!

Have a go at completing the Summer Reading Bingo over the summer holiday!

Once you have completed it, ask a parent to sign and date, and you can choose how to collect evidence. If you complete all the activities, please bring this sheet back to school and you will be entered into a raffle draw for a selection of fantastic reading prizes! Please send in to Miss Crowley by Friday 6th September 2019.

Write a new blurb for the back of one of your books.	What was the best bit of one of your books? Draw a picture to show it.	Design a new cover for a book – how will you make it look different?	Using pictures, show how a non-fiction text is set out.	Read a comic or magazine. Draw your favourite part.
Think of two questions you would like to find the answer to in a non-fiction book. Read the book to find the answers.	Read part of your book to a friend, putting in as much expression as you can. Get them to write in your reading diary.	Write down any new words you have read. Use a dictionary to find out the meaning of the words and record it.	Read your book in an unusual place and take a photo!	Draw a mind map of everything you have found out in a non-fiction book.
Read something that came in the mail.	Write a list of features you can find in a non-fiction book. E.g. contents page.		Share read a book with an adult at home. Who can use the most expression?	Write a book review to persuade someone else to read your book.
Read and read a poem until you can remember every word!	Copy out two sentences or phrases from a book that you really like. Say why you like them.	In two sentences, write down the main event in a recent book you have read.	Draw your favourite character from a story. Use adjectives to describe.	Read a recipe and have a go at making it!
Read at least 10 times during the holiday and ask an adult to mark each read in your diary.	Read your book in an unusual place and take a photo!	Write down each time you need to use your reading skills when out with your family. How many times did you read?	Read a book that you used to enjoy when you were younger. Why did you enjoy it?	Read a poem and draw a picture of how it makes you feel.
