					Develop pleasure in reading, motivation to read, vocabulary and understanding by:
Continue to apply phonic knowledge and skills as the route to decode words until automatic decoding has become embedded and reading is fluent.					listening to, discussing and expressing views about a wide range of contemporary and classic poetry, stories and non-fiction at a level beyond that at which they can read independently;
Read accurately by blending the sounds in words that contain the graphemes taught so far, especially recognising alternative sounds for graphemes.					discussing the sequence of events in books and how items of information are related;
Read accurately words of two or more syllables that contain the same graphemes as above.					becoming increasingly familiar with a wider range of stories, fairy stories and traditional tales;
Read words containing common suffixes.					retell a range of stories, fairy stories and traditional tales;
Read further common exception words, noting unusual correspondences between spelling and sound and where these occur in the word.					being introduced to non-fiction books that are structured in different ways;
Read most words (at an instructional level 93-95%) quickly and accurately, without overt sounding and blending, when they have frequently encountered.					recognising simple recurring literary language in stories and poetry;
Read aloud books closely matched to their improving phonic knowledge, sounding out unfamiliar words accurately, automatically and without undue hesitation.					discussing and clarifying the meaning of words, linking new meaning to known vocabulary;
Re-read these books to build up their fluency and confidence in word reading.					discussing their favourite words and phrase;
					continuing to build up a repertoire of poems learnt by heart;
					appreciate poems reciting some, with appropriate intonation to make the meaning clear.
